QUR'AAN & DA'WAH / ISLAMIC LITERATURE PLEDGE FORM

Al-Hamdulillaah, since September 11th 2001, Al-Hikmat has distributed thousands of Qur'aan and Islamic literature to Non-Muslims, New Muslims and Correctional Institutions throughout the USA. There is never enough Qur'aan available for the countless request on a daily basis. We therefore kindly request you to contribute $3.00 towards the distribution, packaging and shipping of one Qur'aan for Non-Muslims, New Muslims and Correctional Institutions in the U.S.A and Caribbean, Inshaa Allaah. You can also dedicate/ sponsor these Qur'aan as Sadaqa Jaariya for deceased parents or loved ones. It is even more obligatory upon us today to spread the Message of the Qur'aan to Muslims and Non-Muslims to remove doubts and misunderstanding about Islam propagated by Muslim Radicals/Extremists plus by Non-Muslims who campaign against the Qur'aan, Inshaa Allaah, otherwise we could be questioned by Allaah on the day of Judgment for failing to spread the message of the Holy Qur'aan.

AL-QUR'AAN:

*Ch. 16 V. 125 - Invite (all) to the Way of thy Lord with wisdom and beautiful preaching; and argue with them in ways that are best and most gracious.

*Ch. 41 V.33 - And whose words are better than he who calls towards God, and does righteous deeds, and says, "Verily, I am of those who have surrendered to God."

Ch. 3 V. 104 - Let there arise out of you a band of people inviting to all that is good, enjoining what is right, and forbidding what is wrong: They are the ones to attain felicity.

HADITH:

Abu Sa'eed (R.A) narrates that Rasulullah (S. A.W) said, "Almighty Allaah says: "If anybody finds no time for remembrance and for begging favors of Me, because of his remaining busy with the Qur'aan, I shall give him more than what I give to all those who beg favors of Me. The superiority of the Word of Allaah over all the other words is like the superiority of Allaah over the entire creation." (Tirmidhi)

Hadrat Uthman (R.A) narrates that Rasulullah (S.A.W) said: The best amongst you is he who learns the Qur'aan and teaches it."

Summary of Khutbah written by Sis. Karen Shah Program Vice President of Broward Interfaith Council, Florida U.S.A

Here is a thought-provoking Hadith: “A time will come when Muslims will follow a people so much so, that if they were to go into a lizard’s hole the Muslims will follow.” When asked who the people are, the Prophet (PBUH) answered, “The Jews and Christians (lifestyle of today vs. lifestyle of Prophet Moses and Jesus Peace Be Upon Them).” Please do NOT misunderstand this as a criticism of Jews and Christians—it is not. It is a direct criticism of Muslims, meaning that “weak Muslims” who do not follow the Quran (God’s laws) and Sunnah (examples from the life of Prophet Muhammad, PBUH) will easily be led astray by the people of today. Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) said, “If we hold onto the Quran and Sunnah we will not go astray.” Look at our lifestyle. Do we have our day programmed around salat (prayer), or around society? We wake up, eat breakfast, take a shower, go to work, take the kids to school, etc. without a thought of God. Another Hadith says: “When a person goes to sleep, Satan ties 3 knots around his or her neck. When that person wakes up and remembers Allah right away (Al-Hamdulillah!), the 1st knot is loosened. When he goes to make Wudhu, the 2nd knot is loosened. And when he prays his salat, the 3rd knot is loosened.” We are given energy and protection from Satan for the day. In yet another Hadith we are told that when we don’t remember Allah 1st thing in the morning, our day will be long, hard, depressing and stressful. We will have no energy. Satan keeps us tied up! Another Hadith says that when the day has begun and a person reads Surah Ya Sin (Chapter 36 of the Holy Quran, also known as the “heart of the Quran”), Allah will cause that person to accomplish whatever he needs to accomplish that day with ease. In 62:9 of the Qur’aan, God tells us to “hasten to the remembrance of Allah.” Scholars say this refers to the “Khutbah” (sermon/reminder/Zhikr delivered before “Jumua Salat” which is the obligatory Friday congregational prayer.) How is our life built around Saturday and Sunday. Do we observe our Friday Sabbath day, or do we have our religious program on Saturday/Jewish Sabbath and Sunday/Christian Sabbath? Many of us come late to Jumua, and many don’t come at all. The Prophet (PBUH) said there is an hour on Fridays when whatever we ask for, Allah will accept and answer. We should come early to Jumua, to read Darood Shareef (asking God to send his peace and blessings onto the Holy Prophet Muhammad), and to read Qur’aan. And do not abandon Zhikr on Thursday night (which is the start of our Sabbath day). We have been promised special blessings for reading certain chapters of the Quran on Thursday night.

Stand Up Against EXTREMISTS (Muslims & Jews)

I was struck recently by the bigotry and violence of very traditional orthodox Jews in Israel, but more importantly, I was also impressed by the leaders who have come forward to oppose that violence. This may seem like an odd venue to convey this story. However, I thought that the Muslim community can identify with many of the human aspects of these terrible events. It only takes a small number of bigots to give an entire community a bad name. When some people of Muslim background perpetrate crimes in the name of Islam, the community as a whole often gets blamed for the actions of an extreme, violent few. And this is what is happening right now in Israel. Much is made of the segregation of genders in some small segments of the Israeli bus system. Most buses are integrated, but there are buses in some specific neighborhoods with large traditional orthodox populations for people who believe that the genders should be segregated for seating. While the virtues of such separation may be admirable in some communities, the values are being imposed on people who do not subscribe to those opinions. That sounds like how the Taliban ruled Afghanistan. On those few Israeli buses the genders are not only segregated but women are forced to sit in the rear of the buses. That is certainly reminiscent of the racial segregation that occurred in the Southern United States until the 1950's and 1960's. And in particular, one innocent little eight year old girl who was being raised in a less traditional household was spat upon by some orthodox Jews who felt that the girl was not dressed appropriately. What a terrible scenario – to perpetrate a violent act on a little girl whose sole sin was how she was being raised by her parents as if she had a choice in who her parents are. Yet there are those who have stood up against this violence. Recently, a very traditional orthodox woman in Israel chose to sit in the front of one of the segregated buses. While she is absolutely as committed to her faith as the others around her, she felt that those committing bigotry were giving a bad name to the entire community. So she stood up for what was right. She herself also believed that the genders should be separated, but she felt that it was wrong to impose those views on other people and to do so with violence. Furthermore, some of the official leaders of the traditional orthodox community have asked the secular press to help spread the word that it is against the Jewish religion to use violence and bigotry to impose their views on others. They, too, believed that the extreme few were giving their community a bad name. While these leaders who asked for help from the general media do not disagree with the core religious theology and practice of the extremists, where they disagree is that bigotry and violence is not acceptable. Some of the traditional orthodox Jews called the orthodox Jewish woman who stood up against bigotry and called her a heathen. Yet even more called her and thanked her, telling her that she was sanctifying the name of God by representing that traditional community and standing up against bigotry and violence.

HAVE FEAR FOR ALLAAH

By: Br. Hamzad Mohammed Trinidad, West Indies

We need to have fear in our hearts for Allah, for we do not know if and when he would make a calamity befall us. Prophet Muhammad {SAW} had a lot of fear for Allah, at times even weeping with tears flowing down his face. The following are some ahadith {sayings} by Muhammad {SAW} which speak of the fear for Allah:

*No drop is dearer to Allah than two drops viz. One of tear in the fear of Allah and the other of blood in the path of Allah

*A person weeping with the fear of Allah cannot go to hell until milk goes back in the teats

*The face which gets wet with the smallest drop of tear from the fear of Allah is safe from the entrance to the fire of hell

*When a Muslim shivers with the fear of Allah, his sins fall away from him like the falling leaves of trees

*All things fear a person who fears Allah, while everything is a source of fear to him who fears somebody other than Allah

*Allah's fear is the root of all wisdom and

*Seven persons would be under the shade of A'rsh on the Day of Judgment, one of them being the person who remembered Allah when all alone by himself and shed tears for the fear of Allah and in repentance of his sins. Even Aishah, Prophet Muhammad's {SAW} wife, had a lot of fear for Allah. At times she was heard saying: "I wish I were a tree so I could be always busy in Allah's tasbeeh and be absolved of reckoning on the Day of Judgment." "I wish I had been a stone or a piece of earth." "I wish I had been a leaf of a tree or a blade of grass." and "I wish I had not been born at all." Let us all stay on the path of Islam and have fear for the Almighty to bring about an improvement in our lives.

TRANQUILITY IN ALLAAH'S REMEMBRANCE

"Allah, there is no God save Him, the Ever-living, the Eternal. Neither drowsiness nor sleep overtakes Him. To Him belongs all that is in the Heavens and on earth. Who can intercede with Him save by His leave. He knows what lies before humans and what is after them, and they encompass nothing of His knowledge save what He wills. His throne comprises both the heavens and the earth, and He is never weary of preserving them. He is the Sublime, the Tremendous. (2:255)

Assalamu Alaikum, My dear sisters: Throughout the day, we must try to consistently think about Allah (SWT) and praise Him (Subhanallah..Glory be to Allah, Alhamdulillah...All Praise is for Allah, AllahuAkbar...Allah is The Greatest). Allah is truly "The Majestic", "The Mighty", "The Creator". He has created the masterpiece of this universe, however, His true masterpiece is in the Heavens. In the universe, from the birds to the flowers to the skies, the mountains and the beautiful seas; they are all but a small sampling of Allah's exquisite art. These creations do not know of its own beauty and significance, but we (humans) are the beneficiaries of these creations. We are the only ones (as far as we know), who are capable of perceiving beauty, appreciating it and expressing our wonder of Allah's creations. Every tree serves a purpose, as does every drop of rain, every ray of sunshine, as does the darkness of the night. Allah (SWT) has created the sun, moon and stars for our benefit and we are all subservient to Him. Allah's (SWT) greatness is reflected in humans, because He has given life to billions of people on this earth, and He has created for each one, specific and unique features and personality, so that no one is exactly the same (Alhamdulillah). Imagine a world without color, without beauty, without trees, flowers, mountains, birds and without blue skies!! Allah's (SWT) magnificence shows in the colors and beauty of the earth that He has created. Every breath of air we breathe, every time we blink, every movement of our limbs, every heartbeat, every second we are able to see, hear, speak, think, taste, are all blessings from Allah (SWT), that we should not take for granted.

BIGGER HOUSES (BUT SMALLER FAMILIES) FANCY HOUSES (BUT BROKEN HOMES)

Submitted by: Bro. Farooq Shafi
Sunrise, Florida U.S.A

(Translated from Chinese Proverbs plus some personal additions – Source unknown)

1. Today, we have bigger houses; but smaller families
2. More conveniences; but less time
3. We have more degrees; but less common sense
4. More knowledge; but less judgment
5. We have more experts, but more problems; more medicine but less wellness
6. We spend too recklessly, laugh too little and drive too fast
7. We get angry too quickly, stay up too late and get up too tired
8. We read too little, watch TV too often; but pray too seldom
9. We have multiplied our worldly possessions; but reduced our values
10. We talk too much, love too little and lie too often
11. We have learned how to make a living; but not a life
12. We have added years to life; but not life to years
13. We have taller buildings; but shorter tempers
14. Wider freeways; but narrow view points
15. We spend more but have less; we buy more but enjoy it less
16. We have been all the way to the moon and back; but have trouble crossing the street to meet the new neighbor
17. We have conquered out space; but not inner space
18. We have split the atom; but not our prejudices
19. We write more but learn less; plan more but accomplish less
20. We have learned to rush; but not to wait
21. We have higher incomes; but lower morals
22. We build more computers to hold more information, to produce more copies; but we have less communication
23. We are long on quantity; but far short on quality
24. These are the times of fast foods and slow digestion, tall men and short characters; steep profits and shallow relationships
25. More leisure and less fun; more kinds of food but less nutrition
26. Two incomes but more divorces; fancier houses but broken homes

THIS IS THE PARADOX OF OUR TIMES TODAY

1. So.....Let's not keep anything for a special occasion, because every day that we live is a special occasion from The Almighty.

THREE KNOTS of SATAN

What about marriage and children? The Sunnah is to marry for the pleasure of Allaah, and to have children. Today we marry for our own pleasure and choose not to have children. Instead of following the Sunnah of the Prophet, we follow the example of Pharaoh and Satan. We let society tell us when to get married, who we should marry, when to have children, and how many. We are afraid that too many children will cost too much, and keep us from wealth. That is wrong. Before a child is born, his sustenance is written. He comes into this world with his hand filled with mercy from God. In 33:21 of the Quran, Allah tells us: "In the Messenger of God you have the most beautiful example for everyone who looks forward to God and the Last Day, and remembers God unceasingly." In 3:31 of the Quran, we read "Say (O Prophet): If you love God, then follow me, and God will love you and forgive you your sins; for God is Much-Forgiving, Most Merciful." This means follow the Prophet Muhammad (PBUH). A Muslim is not just an ordinary person. The Qur'aan says that a Muslim should display the best characteristics. In 2:143, we learn that God made Muslims so that our way of life could be an example to all mankind, just as the Prophet is an example to us. But instead of being a good example for the world, we follow the world, the people of today. If today's Jews and Christians really followed their own Books, they'd be living like Muslims are supposed to live. There is nothing in how Moses (PBUH) and Jesus (PBUH) lived that is contrary to what Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) taught. Before the Prophet (PBUH) received his 1st revelation, he lived like Moses and Jesus. And finally, we are told in 10:57: "O mankind! The Qur'aan has come to you as a cure for the diseases in your hearts, as a guide and a mercy." As we say in our interfaith programs, our path is not to follow the Jews and Christians, but to have the life of Moses & Jesus (Peace be upon them). Similarly, Muslims must follow the Qur'aan and lifestyle of Prophet Muhammad (S.A.W) vs. the lifestyle of Muslims today. Start tomorrow morning. Set your clocks! Loosen those knots that Satan ties around us when we sleep – wake up and say "Al-Hamdulillaah!" Make Wudu, and pray Fajr Salat! Make the time to read Surah Ya Seen in the morning and you are assured to get your work done with ease and Allaah's blessings. Be the best of mankind! ●

PROPHET MUHAMMAD (S.A.W) Beautiful Pattern & Conduct

Excerpts from Imam Ghazzali (R.A) Religious Learnings

The Holy Prophet (S.A.W) was the most patient among men, the bravest, the best judge, and one who pardoned most. He was the greatest charitable man. He did not pass a single night hoarding any dirham or dinar. Whenever any excess money came to him and if he did not then get anyone to accept it as charity, he did not return home till he gave it to the poor and the needy. He did not store up for more than a year the provision of his family members which Allah was pleased to give him. He used to take one fifth of what easily came to him out of dates and wheat. What remained in excess, he used to give in charity. He used to give away in charity to one who begged anything of him, even out of his stored up provision. He used to repair his shoes, join his wives in their labours and cut meat with them. He was the most shy among men and could not stare at anyone for long. He accepted invitation of slaves and free men and presentation of even a cup of milk. He did not use the properties of Zakat and used to accept the invitation of the widows and the poor. He used to speak the truth even though it was sometimes a cause of trouble to himself and his companions. He used to bind stones in his bell for appeasing his hunger and eat whatever he got. He did not return any present and did not take precaution in any lawful food. If he got dried grapes in lieu of bread, he ate them. If he got baked meat, he ate it. He used to eat whatever he got of bread, wheat, sweets, and honey. He considered milk as sufficient if he did not get any other food. He used not to take food leaning against a pillow or upon a high table. He used to accept invitations of marriage, visit the sick and the diseased and attended the funerals. He was the most modest without pride and his tongue was most eloquent without prolongation of his speech. His constitution was the most beautiful. No worldly duties could keep him busy. He used to put on whatever he got. His ring was made of silver and he used to put it on in the little finger of his right or left hand.

JAM & ALL

10th Anniversary Celebration

Submitted by: Mrs. Kathy Leonard

FORT LAUDERDALE — Iftar that represented cuisines from eight different countries. It was a hit. Later the next year TAO members again visited Darul Uloom for another Eid celebration that attracted more than 200 people. Three clergy spoke about our common spiritual father, Ibrahim, from a Jewish, Muslim and Christian perspective. There have been women's interfaith study groups, sponsored lectures at universities, dialogues for understanding and family gatherings. Members have shared knowledge, frustration, information, joy, and sadness together — especially with the loss of founding member Dr. Florence Ross on May 8, 2011. We will honor her memory during the March celebration with the announcement of a special award. Over the years JAM participants have visited each other's temples and mosques. They have come together at parks for picnics, enjoyed each other's cooking during potluck dinners and even involved their children in programs that helped the each other gain mutual understanding.

HUMOR

FOOLISH HUSBAND & SMART WIFE

There was a man who had worked all of his life, had saved all of his money, and was a real miser when it came to his money. Just before he died, he said to his wife, "When I die, I want you to take all my money and put it in the casket with me. I want to take my money to the afterlife with me." And so he got his wife to promise him with all of her heart that when he died, she would put all of the money in the casket with him. Well, he died. He was stretched out in the casket, his wife was sitting there in black, and her friend was sitting next to her. When they finished the ceremony, just before the undertakers got ready to close the casket, the wife said, "Wait just a minute!" She had a box with her; she came over with the box and placed it in the casket. Then the undertakers locked the casket down, and they rolled it away. So her friend said, "Girl, I know you weren't fool enough to put all that money in there with your husband." The loyal wife replied, "Listen, I'm an honest wife I can't go back on my word. I promised him that I was going to put that money in that casket with him." "You mean to tell me you put that money in the casket with him!!!!?" "I sure did," said the wife. "I got it all together, put it into my account and wrote him a check. If he can cash it, he can spend it!"

HEALTH CORNER

ALZHEIMER'S DISEASE

Dr. Yeny Andrade, M.D.

In last Nov./Dec. 2011 issue, I gave you a brief introduction to Alzheimer's Disease. This month, I will discuss some ways to keep patients with Alzheimer's disease safe.

1. DRIVING: As Alzheimer's progresses, people may get lost easily, or forget to get into the correct lane for a turn. Eventually, they are unable to watch the road and listen to the radio at the same time, or they will be unable to stop suddenly. This is the point when driving becomes dangerous. If this happens, talk to your doctor. When someone is deemed unsafe to drive, he or she must stop. However, it is important to help this person find other ways to get around. Older people can become depressed when they stop driving.

1. PERSONALITY AND BEHAVIOR CHANGES: Some people become confused and might see things that are not there. Others might withdraw, talk less, cry easily or have difficulty sleeping. In more advanced stages, a patient can become psychotic, argumentative and even aggressive. As a caregiver, it's important to watch for things that trigger the problem, and avoid them. It is also important to compromise and simplify things at home. Having a set routine can also help. For those who suffer with hallucinations, it is better not to confront them. When the hallucinations are scary or upsetting to them, try to distract them with something pleasant.

2. INSOMNIA: When this becomes a problem, limit caffeine intake, increase the amount of daily exercise, and limit naptime. Make sure there's a nightlight in the room, as darkness can lead to confusion. Keeping clocks throughout the home, and reminding them of the time of day can also be helpful.

3. WANDERING: It is okay to wander in a safe space, such as a fenced yard. When this is not possible, place large stop signs or furniture in front of the front door. A formal or simple alarm system can also help. One example is to tie a few empty cans to a string on the doorknob. If you choose to put special locks, make sure your loved one is not left alone, in case of a fire or emergency. When it is not possible to keep the environment safe, a 24-hour aide or nursing home placement may become necessary. Fortunately, there are many community resources available to patients and family members suffering with Alzheimer's. Please contact us for more information. This month's trivia question: Which is a better food option for diabetic patients: regular potato or sweet potatoes?

EBRAHAMIC EID FEAST

We all happened to be the sons and daughters of Prophet Ebrahim, We all got together to pay homage to his son and him, We all gathered here to celebrate, that old tradition to recreate He was God's obedient 'n' faithful servant, God put him in a trial which he successfully underwent. Obeying God's order he made up his mind to sacrifice his son, But God sent him a sheep to sacrifice for his good intention. Although we come from West, we come from East, commemorating that occasion, we're having Ebrahamic Eid Feast. Think over, we all from the same Ebrahamic Family at least, We may be religious but not racist, let us joyfully eat together Ebrahamic Eid Feast. We all can get along, we all can live together, We all, as soon as, start respecting each other.

This poem was written and recited by Bro. Abdus Salam from Miami Florida U.S.A. at the Ebrahamic Eid Feast when all 3 Religions (Muslims, Christians & Jews) gathered at Darul Uloom Institute on Sunday November 13th, 2011.

THE DIRTY LAUNDRY

In life we tend to be judgmental and very often look down upon others without exploring deeper and finding out why the person is behaving in such a way. The Beloved Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) is reported to have said "It is enough of evil for a person to hold his brother Muslim in contempt. All of a Muslim is sacred to another Muslim: his blood, his wealth and his honour." (Hadith- Muslim) A young couple moves into a new neighbourhood. The next morning while they are eating breakfast, the young woman sees her neighbour hanging the laundry outside. "That laundry is not very clean", she said. "She doesn't know how to wash correctly. Perhaps she needs better laundry soap. "Her husband looked on, but remained silent. Every time her neighbour would hang her washing to dry, the young woman would make the same comments. Some time later, the woman was surprised to see a nice clean laundry on the line and said to her husband: "Look, she has learned how to wash correctly. I wonder who taught her this." The husband said, "I got up early this morning and cleaned our windows" Lesson: If our windows are dirty so will we see others as dirty too. What we see in others is indeed a reflection of our inner-selves! So it is with life that what we see when watching others depends on the purity of the window through which we look. It is easy for us to condemn, discuss other people, their lives & things that really doesn't even concern us and we tend to forget - our windows may not be that clean after all! If we are good we will see good. The Beloved Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) is reported to have said: "A Muslim is a mirror to another Muslim" ~(Hadith Abu Dawud)

2. Search for knowledge, read more; sit on your front/back porch and admire the view without paying attention to your needs

3. Spend more time with your family and friends, eat your favorite foods (in moderation) and visit the places you love

4. Life is a chain of moments of enjoyment; not only about survival

5. Use your crystal goblets, your valued china; do not save your best perfume and use it every time you want it

6. Remove from your vocabulary phrases like "one of these days" and "someday"; let's write that letter we thought writing "one of these days"

7. Let's tell our families and friends how much we love them

8. Do not delay anything that adds laughter and joy to our lives

9. Every day, every hour and every minute is special; so pray to Allaah and ask for forgiveness for yourself and your loved ones.

TRANQUILITY IN ALLAAH'S REMEMBRANCE

Allah (SWT) is truly amazing and He alone is responsible for all these blessings. "Which of the favors of your Lord do you deny?" At the sight and thought of Allah's creations and craftsmanship, we should be moved to praise Him. Let us consistently make the time to truly appreciate and acknowledge all of Allah's (SWT) greatness and His many favors, and every time we see one of Allah's (SWT) creations, and marvel at its beauty and power; let us instantly praise Allah (SWT) and know that all this is for us to appreciate and enjoy. However, we need to work hard and do more good deeds to gain Allah's (SWT) pleasure in order to receive His true masterpiece of Jannah (Heaven). When we pray our salaah, we need to focus on Allah (SWT) as if He is standing in front of us. When we do dhikr, we need to focus and properly pronounce each word and think of the meaning....Subhanallah: glory be to Allah, Alhamdulillah: praise be to Allah, AllahuAkbar: Allah is great. Let us remember, quality is better than quantity. When we pray to Allah, we have to contemplate His majesty and truly thank Him for all his favors and blessings. We have programmed ourselves to say "thank you" to others and to commend others on their good work, their appearance, their good personality, their kindness, and so many other things; but we do not spend enough time praising the One who has created man and enabled him to do good and blessed him with countless bounties. We need to make a concerted effort to remember Allah (SWT) more often.

Stand Up Against EXTREMISTS (Muslims & Jews)

These stories are stories we can all relate to. We know that some members of all of our communities use violence to promote their goals. We as religious leaders need to stand up against this bigotry and violence and declare that it is wrong. Yet at the same time we also know that we become targets of prejudice because others sometimes paint ALL of us as extremists because of the actions of a few. We know that this, too, is wrong. And we all believe that religious leaders and religious people should come together to protect the rights of others and oppose all forms of violence and bigotry. Instead we should pursue the same value for all of our communities – the value of peace, for all of us, and between us, the value of Shalom, the value of Salaam.

QUESTION & ANSWER CORNER

By Shaikh Shafayat Mohamed

MY RELIGIOUS HUSBAND does not want CHILDREN

*Sister Zara from England

Question: Assalaamu Alaikum.

Can you give me some advice and knowledge? I have been married for 8 months. My husband and I have been brought up differently. He was born and brought up in Saudi Arabia and has come to the United Kingdom 8 years ago with his family. I was born and brought up in the United Kingdom, so I'm more westernized and open minded. Where he is very over protective and still thinks strict like Saudi men such as wearing Abaya if not always then you must wear it in front of my family etc., - which I understand in Islam you must. But if you are married to a girl who doesn't wear Hijab, Abaya etc., you must give them time to adjust and Allaah will give Hidayat himself in the heart for change towards Islam, instead of a human forcing someone to do something without ones wish. Well, basically because of arguments between my husband and I, my family don't talk to him neither does his family talk to me. And our families don't talk to each other.

My question is: I really want to have a baby but my husband doesn't, because he says we are not settled and he wants to get his own house then we can have a baby. But I see it as a baby brings its own happiness and Rizq in the home, and people who rent a home still don't stop making a family. I feel a baby will bring us closer together and will bring our families closer too. My husband doesn't have a mom because she passed away but his dad's heartily wish is for him to see his grandchildren and he is very close to my husband as my husband is the youngest. One of my husband's brother has kids and then the others have no kids. My family also wishes for my children as I'm oldest. According to Islam what does it say regarding to my Farz as a wife? Do I have right to insist to become a mother if we have intimate relationship? No matter the arguments we have, due to our different opinions of thinking there is still that husband and wife relation between us. We only argue mostly when we are going out and he doesn't like my English clothes and I don't want to wear shalwar kameez or when he wants to go to his family house and won't go to my family house, and when all he talks about is his niece and nephews all the time and won't even think about us having a family. Even though he loves kids and so do I. If we are at home and I don't want to go my family house, then he is okay. He says he very religious as he is from Saudi Arabia. I think personally contraception is wrong, but he uses to stop any chances of pregnancy. Please give your advice. Thank you so much.

Answer: I am sorry to hear about your situation. Actually, your husband may be right when he says he is religious but he needs to educate himself in Qur'aan and Sunnah. Because the Qur'aan doesn't recommend contraceptive and the Holy Prophet Muhammad (S.A.W) never practiced any form of contraceptive. Permissibility has been granted for the wife's health condition, not just for the wife and husband's whims and fancies. Allaah Knows Best

PROPHET MUHAMMAD (S.A.W) Beautiful Pattern & Conduct

He used to take his servant behind his back on any conveyance, whether it was horse, camel or donkey. Sometimes he walked bare footed, sometimes he had no turban or cap on his head. He used to go even to a distant place to see sick, love scents and hate stench or bad smell, sit with the poor and the destitute, eat with them, honour those possessing honour, advise them to do good deeds and show kindness to the relatives. He did not treat harshly with anybody and accepted excuse offered to him. He used at times to cut jokes without falsehood and not burst into laughter. He held innocent sports and plays as lawful, played with his wives and held races with them. He used to drink milk of camels and goats along with his family members and give them equal shares in foods and dresses. He passed no time uselessly except for Allah. He used to walk in the gardens of his companions for recreation. He did not hate the poor for their poverty, not fear the kings for their mighty power. He used to call the people, high or low, towards Allah. Allah adorned him with all the qualities, and good administration although he was illiterate. His boyhood was spent along with the shepherds and he used to graze sheep and goats. He was an orphan and his parents died in his infancy. ●
